

Important Safety Notice: Gree Dehumidifier Recall

Recall Website: <https://global.gree.com/usa/channels/840.html>.

Dear Consumer:

In cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, Gree Electric Appliances, Inc. of Zhuhai, China has announced a recall for certain models of dehumidifiers. We have learned that you may have purchased one of these dehumidifier models. Please read this notice carefully and visit Gree's recall website to confirm if your dehumidifier is included in the recall.

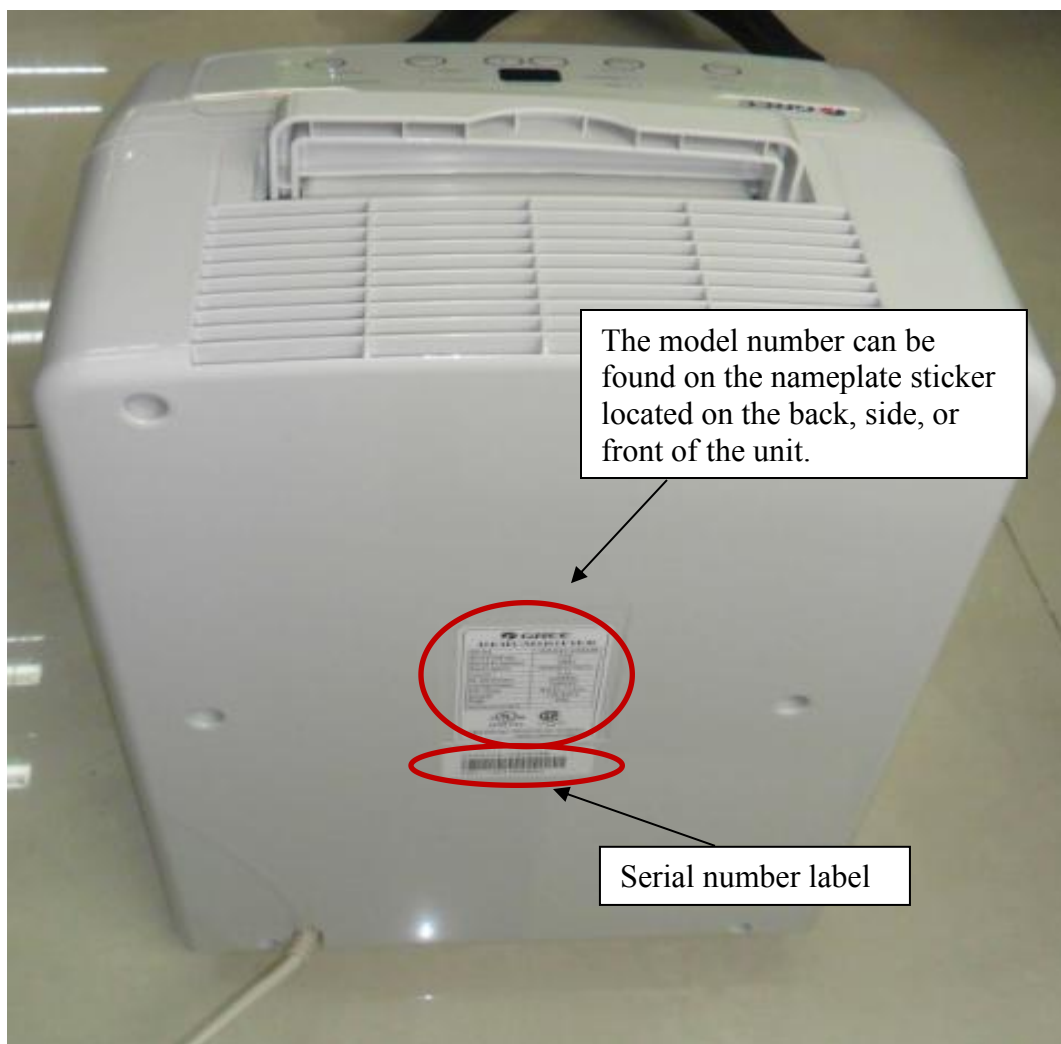

Gree has received consumer reports of dehumidifier units overheating, emitting smoke, or catching fire. Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled dehumidifiers and visit Gree's recall website at <https://global.gree.com/usa/channels/840.html> for more information and to register to provide your contact information.

You will be notified when the registration website is available to register for the recall to obtain a refund. Consumers should not return the recalled dehumidifiers to the retailer where they were purchased, as retailers are not prepared to take the units back.

This recall involves certain models of 25, 30, 40, 45, 50, 65 and 70-pint dehumidifiers with brand names GE, Kenmore, Norpole, Seabreeze, and SoleusAir that were manufactured between January 2011 and February 2014. The recalled model numbers are listed below. The brand name and the pint capacity are printed on the front of the dehumidifier and the model number is printed on a sticker on the back, front or side of the unit, as shown in the below picture. The dehumidifiers are white, beige, gray or black plastic and measure between 19 and 24 inches tall, 13 and 15 inches wide, and 9 and 11 inches deep.

Please make sure to have the Brand Name and Model Number available prior to going to the website.
