NEWS FLASH

From Economist Joe Higgins

Flash Retail Sales Report

The Flash Retail Sales Report reveals that we had a good increase in spending in November, driven by a strong Black Friday. In November, our appliance industry surpassed last year for the first time in 2024, according to AHAM. The full flash report is on the IAC website under General Information. Report provided by AVB/Brandsource.

Flash Consumer Price Index Report

November's Flash CPI Report that was released last week, gives the Federal Reserve a path to a 25-basis point cut in December. Joe believes that this will make a January cut is unlikely. Mortgage rates weren't impacted much, but they did decrease down to 6.67%. The full flash report is on the IAC website under General Information. Report provided by AVB/Brandsource.

Flash Housing Starts Report

The Flash Housing Starts Report shows that November's housing starts had a mixed review. Single-family starts were up, mainly in Florida, and multi-family homes were down across the country.
